

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF APPLIED NEUROSCIENCE

IAAN Conference of Applied Neuroscience

In Person and Virtual Registrations

Thursday 7th to Saturday 9th September 2023

Twin Towns Conference & Function Centre

Wharf Street, Tweed Heads NSW

Register at www.iaan.com.au/events

- 12 speakers, covering a wide range of applied neuroscience topics
- 3 conference streams (Psychotherapy, Organisational and Educational)
- Panel Discussion
- Peer-to-peer networking and forum
- IAAN Annual General Meeting & Social Event
- 21 Continuing Professional Development Points

Conference Keynote Speakers

Prof Nicholas Talley
Gastroenterologist, epidemiologist, researcher, University and clinical educator. Australia.

Dr Sarah McKay
Neuroscientist, Australia.

Prof Ralph Martins
Neurobiology - Biomedical Sciences Australia.

- 7th September - Pre-Conference Full Day Workshop - Prof Nicolas Talley
"Artificial Intelligence devices and your gut health"
- 8th – 9th September – 3 Keynotes and 90-minute Workshops featuring:

Prof Nicholas Talley - Diagnosis and non-prescription drug management of the irritable bowel syndrome: diets, alternative therapies, and psychological therapies (the what and the how).

Dr Sarah Mackay (Aus) - All In Her Head? Lessons learned writing two books on the female brain.

Prof Ralph Martins - Early Diagnosis and Prevention of Alzheimer's Disease

Jean Annan (NZ) - 7 Dimensions of Children's Emotional Well-being: Focused support for young people.

Mark Grant (Aus) - Clinical applications of Neuroscience of dissociation.

Peter Janetzki (Aus) - The Relational Brain: Assisting Couples to Change Their Default Mode Networks for Better Outcomes.

Olivia Lesslar (Aus) - Beyond the Five Senses: The Remarkable Role of Transient Receptor Potentials as a Threat Detection Network.

Louise MacKenzie (NZ) – Alternative Treatments in the Mental Health Context from a Neuroscience lens: Psychedelics, Cannabis and Essential Oils.

Dr Dawn Macintyre (PhD) and Jan Sky (Aus) - The Interplay between Neuroscience and Chronic Pain – a personal journey.

Delia McCabe - PhD (USA) - The Role of Nutrition in Mental Health: How to Action the Growing Body of Evidence

Joseph Riordan (Aus) - Secure Phylogenetic Attachment and Interpersonal Neurosynchronistic Phylogenesis: Converging Constructs in the Neuroscience and Treatment of Trauma and Community Psychopathology.

Jeremy Samson (Aus) - Neuropsychotherapy & High Functioning Autism/ Asperger's Syndrome.

The IAAN is proudly a not-for-profit organization – Sponsorship is welcome for our 2023 conference.

Email your interest to office@iaan.com.au